Peanut Butter Christmas Cutout Cookies

Servings: 3 to 4 dozen

One of my favorite holiday traditions is decorating peanut butter cookies with family. It's less about the simple recipe and more about the laughter, creativity, and a hint of competition it inspires. From my childhood to now, this tradition continues—complete with increasingly risqué designs as everyone gets older!

→ Ingredients

- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 cup white sugar
- 1 cup oleo
- 2 eggs
- 1 tsp baking soda (dissolve in 2 Tbsp hot water)
- 1 tsp vanilla
- 3 cups flour
- 1 cup peanut butter
- 1 tsp salt

→ Instructions

Mold in hands and spread with fork dipped in cold water. Alternatively, refrigerate in long "rolls," slice and fork or refrigerate, roll out and use cookie cutters for Christmas cookies.

Bake at 375°F for 10 minutes. Cool 1 minute before removing from pan.
